

Locality: California. ~~Off Scripps Pier near end, & on~~ Scripps Institution Pier, La Jolla, San Diego Co. lat 32°52.0', long. 117°15.3' W. (U.S.C.G.S.
5101, 1933 ed.)

Water: clear, salt

Vegetation: a little brown algae on pilings & some floating kelp

Bottom: sand Temp.: _____

Shore: sand beach Current: waves

Distance from shore: about 0.2 mi. Tide: outgoing

Depth of capture: mid-water Depth of water: 20-22'
 (low tide)

Method of capture: hook & line (mussel bait)

Collected by: Carl L. & Laura C. Hubbs Date: 11:19:1944

Orig. preserv.: 10% form. + borax Time: 4:30-6 P.M.

40. Atherinops affinis californiensis: 2 ad.
discarded golden yellow blotches about head.

Fish in aquarium from here show silver blue reflections from streak above silver band,
 whereas, according to Palmer,
 sweet from Mission Bay have an amber streak.

Kept at LIO.
 51. Medialuna californiensis

Calif. Acad.
 11393-94

9 ad. (5 preserved; 4 eaten -
 flesh moderately tasty, rather rubbery; then 4 were 2 ♂ + 2 ♀, with partly developed gonads.