

Sta. No. H 45-30

Locality: California: reef near S. end of Long Beach & La Jolla Bay, San Diego

^{about} Lat. 32° 51' 08" N.; Long. 117° 15' 46" W. (USC & GS chart 5106, 1945)

Water: salt

Vegetation: _____

Bottom: sand with large stones Temp.: warm

Shore: rocky reef ~~near~~ to cliff Current: _____

Distance from shore: in small pool Tide: low

Depth of capture: _____ Depth of water: few inches

Method of capture: overturning stones; hands

Collected by: E. Yale Dawson (for H.H.H.) Date: III: 10: 1945

Orig. preserv.: _____ Time: afternoon

59. Typhlogobius californiensis: 1 ad.

kept in aquarium. (^{44 mm.} on III: 23)

To Stanford

Dead & preserved III: 19: 45

Had staid most of time by daylight under a large mussel shell; never found burrowed into sand. One night found free on bottom.