Sta. No. 1145-115

Locality: California: in and around Scripps Pier, San Diego.

Lat. 32° 52' 02"N.; Long. 117° 15' 20"W. (USC & GS ~~chart~~ Sheet 4809, 1928)

Water: clear

Vegetation: none

Bottom: sand, a few rocks Temp.:

Shore: sand beach Current:

Distance from shore: out about 150 ft. Tide:

Depth of capture: Depth of water: to 5 ft.

Method of capture: 6' x 25' bag seine

Collected by C.L. + E.C. Hubbs & E.M. Kanga Date: VII: 20: 1945

Orig. preserv.: ~~10% formalin~~ saved alive Time: 5:30 - 6 P.M.

except for

6. Urobatis halleri : 2 ad ♂'s, one without tail discarded, one alive.

40. Atherinops affinis cedrosensis : 1 yg., preserved (discard)

~~Hubbsina turneri~~ Roncador

46 ~~Roncador stearnsi~~ : 1 yr., alive

Roncador stearnsi

47. Micrometrus minimus : 8 yr. alive

Amphistichus argenteus : 12 yr. alive

Hyperprosopon argenteum : 10 yr., alive

51. Girella nigricans : 1 pelagic phase, alive.

On A.M. of VII: 24 this fish has transformed from pelagic phase, now normal color even with spots developed. Has done well, feeds voraciously and has grown very much.