Sta. No. H46-128

Locality: Baja California: cove on E. shore of South Coronado Id.

Lat. ° 'N.; Long. ° 'W. (USC & GS chart , 19)

Water:

Vegetation:

Bottom: Temp.:

Shore: Current:

Distance from shore: Tide:

Depth of capture: Depth of water:

Method of capture: observation with face plates

Collected by: Earl S. Herbst & Herbert Hahn Date: XI:9:1946

Orig. preserv.: — Time: mid-day.

35. Paradexia clathratus: several lg. yg. to m. ad. seen.

40. Atherinops affinis insularum: common, near surface, also in more open part of cove.

47. Embiotoca n. sp. – several

48. Hypsypops rubicunda: yg. ad common, living as in Sou. Calif.

Chromis punctipinnis: school of young clearly seen.

50. Oxyjulis californica: bl. yg. ad., not very common.

51. Girella nigricans: school of bl. yg., on bottom.

Over

[Medialuna californiensis: adults
. common near surface almost boats part of core]

61. Bivalvia shells: 1 a valve
of clam; others made flat stones, scratches. stones were turned over.