Sta. No. H47-150

Locality: California: just off Torrey Pines

Lat. ° 'N.; Long. ° 'W. (USC & GS chart , 19)

Water:

Vegetation:

Bottom: Temp.:

Shore: Current:

Distance from shore: Tide:

Depth of capture: Depth of water: 100 ft.

Method of capture: Hook & line, Dick Hines

Collected by: George Wernham Date: ~~100~~ VIII:6:1947

Orig. preserv.: 10% form + borax Time:

56. Prionotus stephanophrys: 1 ad., 253 mm.

General color olive with dusky reddish spots above, lower parts ~~w~~ chalky white anteriorly and strongly suffused with red behind. Considerable red on C. and some on A. Branchiostegal membranes lemon, and a band of lemon on side of throat. P_1 bluish gray near rays, with a reddish spot of varying size. Slight wash of reddish on back.

Exposed eyes olive-purple. Golden ring about iris. P_2 has a little lemon and a little reddish on upper surface.

(over)

O. circular membrane with reddish brown spots and faint ramifications of some color on vigenta. Trace of dark spots on suborbital. Spots on D. brown with a faint margining of reddish on D_2