Sta. No. H47-198

Locality: Calif. north of Scripps Institution
North side of submarine canyon

Lat. ° 'N.; Long. ° 'W. (USC & GS chart , 19)

Water:

Vegetation:

Bottom: Temp.:

Shore: Current:

Distance from shore: Tide:

Depth of capture: 100 ft. Depth of water:

Method of capture: Hook + line.

Collected by: Dick Hiner (Geo. Wernham) Date: 14: XII: 47

Orig. preserv.: 10% formalin Time:

Common name locally:
Red garnet. Extreme example.

55. Scorpaenichthys ruber - 1 ad.

Whole of body and fins
a deep carmine red except for ventral surface including throat, branchiostegals, and belly back to and including narrow strips on each side of anal fin, which are pinkish red. Lower rays of pectorals marked with light blotches. Light blotches on dorsals, caudal and anal bordered with black. Black blotches on upper half of pectorals. Some blackish patches on body above lateral line, and more distinct

black spots crossing lateral line
2nd on lower half of body
2nd on caudal peduncle.