Sta. No. H48-17

Locality: Calif: off rocky reef just south of Beach Club, La Jolla.

Lat. ° 'N.; Long. ° 'W. (USC & GS chart , 19)

Water:

Vegetation: Macrocystis and Phyllospadix

Bottom: Sand and rock. Temp.:

Shore: Rocky. Current:

Distance from shore: 300 yds. Tide:

Depth of capture: 15 ft. to surface Depth of water: 15 ft

Method of capture: Observation in diving suit

Collected by: McHugh & Hinton Date:

Orig. preserv.: None taken Time: 1430 - 1600

35. Paralabrax clathratus - in & around kelp.

50. Oxyjulis californica# - large numbers concentrated around diver, apparently attracted by movement.

51. Girella nigricans - a few large adults

61. Heterostichus rostratus - lying in a vertical position among algae and Phyllospadix

64. Paralichthys californicus - 1 ad.

Pleuronichthys sp. - 1 ad.