

State or Country: Baja California Norte Field No. H53-106
County: _____ Map: H.O. 1149 insert, 1943
Locality: Bahia Todos Santos, at Rincon, on north base of Punta Banda
Lat. 30° 43.16' N., Long. 116° 40.0' W.
Water: dirty
Vegetation: little algae

Bottom: sand, with cobbles margin
Cover: little Temp.: 22.34° C at 1745 nearby
Shore: cobbles to low beach Current: little (Sta. 16 C)
Dist. offshore: to about 200' Stream width: _____
Depth of capture: _____ Depth of water: _____
Collected by Mexican fishermen (examined by C. L. H.)
Tide: moderately high, incoming Date: VI: 26: 1953
Method of capture: beach seine 4" → 1" sq. mesh; ca. 2 x 100 fathoms
Orig. preserv.: observation only Time: some landed 1800 hr.

JUN 29 1953

One small fish box filled; all fish saved by fishermen, including yearlings.

46. Roncador stearnsi (Steindachner): bulk of catch. Short half hour fish, especially
P., bright orange yellow. Called "roncador".
Limbruna roncador Jordan & Gilbert: 1 ad.
Called

Menticirrhus undulatus (Quoy): 2 or 3 yearlings + 2 ads. Called "boca dulce".

Cynoscion nobilis (Lacepede): 1 hl. gr., definitely nobilis (teeth small).
Called "corbina".

47. Hyperprosopon argenteum (Gibbons):
~~several~~

Amplichthys argenteus (Gassiz): a few

Embrotoca jacksoni: 1 adult; mouth small & nearly all dark; head and
P. small. Definitely jacksoni.

Stenobichthys vocca (Quoy): 1 hl. gr.,
very dark inshore type.

[No other species.]

Carl L. Hubbs.