

State or Country: California Field No. 510-54-77
County: San Diego Map: 1
Locality: Scrapps Distribution Pier, near La Jolla
Lat. N., Long. W.
Water: salt, clear
Vegetation: some brown algae on mussels
Bottom: sand, about piling
Cover: in mussel mass Temp.:
Shore: sand beach Current: mod. waves
Dist. offshore: about 50 ft. Stream width:
Depth of capture: in mussel, in water Depth of water: about 2 ft.
Collected by: Carl L. Hubbs, T. J. Walker & F. D. Kloppe
Tide: low (-0.2 at 0537) Date: VII: 4: 1954
Method of capture: dip-net & axe
Orig. preserv.: 109° form + borax Time: ca 0600 PST.

VII: 4: 1954

Worked nearly an hour + removed about 2 bushes of mussels (Mytilus californianus), prying loose with axe into dipnet + shaking + sorting on beach.
No other fish seen. Alburnus ?
Hypsoblenius remarkable.

55. Scorpaenichthys marmoratus
marmoratus (Ayres): 1 yr.

Counts recorded.

Blackish green brown on a light green gray base, with some silver on lower light area + some pinkish gold on sides of belly.
Seen typical of inshore form.

Carl L. Hubbs