

State & Country: Baja California Norte, Mexico Field No. S.10 59-52

County: Map: H.O. 5195 VII:20; 11957

Locality: Apprx. 11 naut. mi. WSW from Punta Descansa

Lat. 32° 11.4' N., Long. 117° 13.5' W.

Water: Vegetation: Bottom: Cover: Temp: Shore: Current: Dist. offshore: Apprx. 11 naut. mi. Stream width: Depth of capture: bottom Depth of water: 746 fathoms Collected by: George B. Schick on Army T-441 Tide: Date: V:19:1959 Method of capture: deep free vehicle trap (6' tetrahedron) Orig. preserv.: frozen -> 10% form. Time: 11:00 - 15:45 hrs. (trap on bottom estimated as 2 hrs., 50 min.) V:21:1959

In series of tests of self-rising trap being designed and tested by Mr. Schick under supervision of John D. Isaacs. Effort was made to hit depressed area indicated by one sounding in area of 500 fathoms.

Caught in addition to fishes 1 large red crab (being handled by Sam D. Dinton), one isopod (given to Invertebrate Unit), remains of one octopus (spend up by Sablefish?, decapods).

4(A) Myxine circifrons Garman: 3 (197-435) also 1 Myxine baileyi (C.M. Millan)

54(A) Anoploporus fimbria (Pallas): 3 adults

2 preserved 613 mm - 7 lbs
579 mm - 5 1/2 lbs
(fresh frozen & preserved)
1 saved frozen for casting and for skeleton (for Reese M. Bailey) Carl L. Hubbs