

State of Country: Baja California, Mexico Field No. S 1067-69
County: La Paz Map: H.O. 1688 rev. July 1957
Locality: Guadalupe, near middle of Melponene Cove;
anchored position of vessel.
Lat. 28° 52.7 N, N., Long. 118° 17.0 W W.
Water: clear and blue
Vegetation: _____
Bottom: _____
Cover: Surface Temp.: 15.7° - 16.2° C
Shore: bold, rocky Current: (thermograph)
Dist. offshore: ca. 0.4 mile Stream width: _____
Depth of capture: bottom Depth of water: 55 feet
Collected by crew of R/V Thomas Washington, on SIO expedition
MV 67-IB with Hull, Winer, et al. Date: July 1967
Method of capture: hook and line IV:30
Orig. preserv.: 10% neutral form. Time: morning

MV 67-IA-35

26 Synnobranchius sp. mordax 1 (630)

Marbled, purple-black and clear, light yellow. Everett C. Douglas tried in vain to get a gas sample. Mary Hanson Pritchard worked viscera and visceral cavity for parasites.

35. Paralabrax clathratus: common Mrs.

Pritchard worked specimen for parasites. Everett took samples for gas.

50 Pomatomus saltatrix: bl. y. to ad.

Mrs. Pritchard worked same for parasites. Douglas took gas samples.

60 Caulolatilus princeps: common;
Douglas took gas samples.

MV 67-IB

IV: 36 - V: 5: 1967

Personnel

UCSD

SIO

MV Staff

Dr. Carl H. Hubbs, leader

Robert L. Wisner, Specialist -
Assistant leader

Ronald R. McConnaughey, chief technician

Lo-Chai (Lloyd) Chen, graduate student.

UCTB

Clifford M. Nelson, graduate student

UCSC

Dr. Richard Spencer, <sup>Peterson</sup> assistant professor

Roger Lee Sentry, graduate student

SD Soc. Nat. Hist.

Dr. Reid Moran, curator of botany

Smithsonian Institution

Dr. Robert Lee DeLong,
marine bird research

Volunteer

Fritzhoff Ohre.